

Resident Spotlight:

Betty Jo Graber:

Betty Jo was born on March 15, 1932 in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

Betty Jo was the youngest of three children born to Winnie and George Tackitt. They all lived and grew up and lived in Panhandle, Texas and graduated from Panhandle High School.

After graduating high school in 1950 Betty Jo continued her education at the University of North Texas where she got her certification in Physical Education in 1954. But Betty Jo was not done with school yet, she ended up with her Masters in Physical Education in 1956.

Betty Jo met and married Norris Crumm in 1956 and she began her career at Weatherford College as the Women's Basketball Coach.

Betty Jo's first husband died in 1970 and in 1981 she married Raymond "Bud" Graber who has also passed away in January of 2022.

During Betty Jo's life she has had more accomplishments and honors bestowed upon her than most, and there are too many to mention, but one of her proudest accomplishments was in 1984 she was the Team Manager for the Women's Basketball Team that won the Gold Medal at the Olympics which were held in California.

Betty Jo finally retired from coaching in 1991 after 35 years at Weatherford College.

Betty Jo still has her coaching spirit and doesn't mind letting you know when she isn't happy with you, but she is just as quick to smile and brighten your day when you make her happy.
